“ A gentle wind blew cross the land
Reaching out to take a hand
For on the winds the angels came
Calling out a mother's name.
Left behind, the children's tears
Loving memories of the years
Of joy and love, a life well spent
And now to God a mother's sent.
On angel's wings, a heavenly flight
The journey home, towards the light
To those who weep, a life is gone
But in God's love, 'tis but the dawn.

“ To The Coleman/Rahman Family,

I can't believe Aunt Jennie is really gone. She was a part of my life for 48 yrs. and I will miss her dearly. She loved and cared about her Michigan City family very much. What I remember most about Aunt Jennie was everytime their was a birthday, anniversary, or any celebration in town--SHE WAS HERE! Smiling, laughing and having a good time. Her children made sure that Aunt Jennie came home to Michigan City anytime she wanted. She always called and came to check on my grandma Alver McDonald (her sister). She loved us all--but God loved her best. I have comfort in knowing that she is at peace with no pain. Please do not let the miles apart keep us from continuing to see each other. We can't see each other everyday, but let's stay in contact--we are a very close family. I love you all very much.

Take Care & God Bless,

“ To. our cousins, We love you and we loved Aunt Jennie. She was definitely a strong black woman before it was fashionable. She was supportive and committed to her family. Fun loving and she always had a joke. Once in awhile out of the blue she would call me long distance and talk like she was next door and at the end of our talk she would say I love you, Bye Bye and that was what she said on 12/25/2005. Hank Mayo, Tommy, Wayne and Tracy Coleman extend their love as well.

“ I will always remember how welcoming and loving she was toward me and my family. I had not seen her in a few years but I will always have the memory of visiting her house when I was younger and all of the great crafts she made for me and my family. She will truly be missed by all of my family, Starlisha Coleman(her granddaughter), Charles Coleman JR(her grandson), and LaDonia Turner(her daughter-in-law).
