Natasha Renee Campbell was born on April 21, 1971, in Flint, MI to Carse Franklin Jr. and Eunice Franklin. From the very beginning, her life carried a radiant light that would go on to touch countless hearts. On May 2, 2026, in Ann Arbor, she peacefully transitioned to be with the Lord, leaving behind a powerful legacy of faith, love, and joy that continues on.

Natasha lived an impactful life. She was loving, vibrant and her presence brightened any room she entered. With warmth, laughter, and her captivating smile, she made people feel seen, valued, and deeply loved. She never met a stranger and everyone she encountered felt her genuine spirit. She loved wholeheartedly, laughed freely, and exuded joy, compassion and positivity. Whether through dancing, fellowship, or simply showing up for others, Natasha embodied the kind of love that reflects the heart of God.

Her journey of purpose unfolded in both her calling and her craft. A proud native of Flint, she graduated from Flint Northwestern High School with the Class of 1989 and continued her studies at Eastern Michigan University. She later pursued her passion at Hair Force Academy, earning her cosmetology license on February 15, 1995. What began as a profession quickly became a ministry. For over three decades, Natasha used her gifts as a cosmetologist, educator, and creator to uplift others, restoring confidence, speaking life, and reminding people of their inner and outer beauty through her work at Crystal Creations, Salon Eclipse, De Darvell, Glow Salon, Summerset Day Spa Salon and Touch of Elegance.

Yet even greater than her gifts was her faith. Natasha's journey with God began at Harris Memorial COGIC, where she committed her life to Christ and began to grow deeply in her walk with Him. From 1999 to 2009, she faithfully served in the women's ministry, and in that season, God was shaping her heart, teaching her how to serve, lead, and pour into others with grace and compassion.

That strong foundation carried her into the next chapter at Word of Life Church, where she dedicated 16 years of faithful service. There, she stepped into leadership within the women's ministry, becoming a source of wisdom, encouragement, and strength to many. With a willing spirit, she created spaces where women could grow, heal, and be uplifted. Through her leadership of the annual Mother's Day Brunch, over several years, she brought women together in love and fellowship, connection and joy, and reminders of God's goodness.

Beyond the church and the salon, Natasha carried a special gift for creating beauty in every space she touched. Through interior design, home staging, and event planning, she created atmospheres that felt warm, welcoming, and filled with love. She understood that even the smallest details could make a lasting impact, and she used her creativity to bless others in meaningful ways.

Above all, Natasha was an incredible wife and mother, steadfast, nurturing, and deeply devoted to her children. She was their greatest supporter, always showing up, always encouraging, and always loving without condition. She was a warrior, a fighter, and a true champion for her family. Solid as a rock, fierce and strong, yet tender and sweet, she carried a rare strength wrapped in grace. Her children could always depend on her unwavering presence, her wisdom, and her powerful love.

Natasha's greatest joy was her family. She leaves to cherish her memory her beloved husband, William "Pete" Campbell; her daughter, Kaelin Anne (Joseph) Okoronkwo; son, Braxton Amir Campbell; and her treasured granddaughter, Victorie Bliss Okoronkwo. She is also lovingly remembered by her brothers, Raymond Jackson, Prince (Tammie) Franklin, and Carse (Khali) Franklin III; her sisters, Gwendolyn Franklin, Laelonni Jackson, and Tasha Bowman.

She also leaves a loving circle of nieces and nephews: Antonio (Kiera) Franklin, Antwaun Franklin, Prince (Kaeli) Franklin II, Haley Franklin, Keith Franklin, Khali Franklin, Shaniah Moore, Da'Carri Bryant, Marcus Mobley, Khalil Franklin, and Chase Tucker, along with many extended family members, dear friends, clients, church family, and members of the community whose lives were touched by her kindness, beauty, and love.

Natasha's life is a testimony, one that reminds us that when we remain faithful,
God will continue to lead, grow, and use us for His glory. She showed us how to love boldly, serve faithfully, stand strong, and walk in joy. Though she now rests in the presence of the Lord, her voice still echoes, her love still surrounds us, and her legacy continues to shine.

Though she has transitioned from our sight, Natasha's faith, love, laughter, and radiant spirit remain. Let her life exhort and inspire us to live with purpose, to love deeply, to stand strong, and to trust God in every season, for her story is not only remembered, it continues to live on in all of us.

Natasha was preceded in death by her Mother, Eunice Franklin and her Father, Carse
Franklin Jr. (Tyler Chévon Cowan (Niece

“ I remember the first time we met. It was at St John Vianney School. We were collecting our children at the end of the day. I'll always remember your pony tail that went down your back. Soon after you became my stylist and then a confidant. Years later, you were my prayer warrior. You are missed 💔 I will never forget our friendship or heartfelt conversations. Rest well Tasha 🙏

“ Heavenly Father, I come before You with a heavy heart, grieving the loss of a dear and long-time friend who has passed I thank You for the gift of her life, for the years of laughter, shared memories, and the strength of a bond that stood the test of time. Lord, we believe she is now safe in Your eternal arms, in a place where there is no more pain, no more sorrow, and no more tears. May she rest in Your perfect peace, her spirit free from the ravages of illness and restored to full vitality in Your presence. Comfort those of us left behind. When the silence feels too deep and the grief too heavy, remind us that love never dies and that our connection to her remains through our memories and Your grace. Help us to honor her legacy by living fully and loving deeply, just as she did. Give us the strength to face each day with hope, trusting in the promise that we will one day be reunited. In Your holy name, I pray. Amen. My prayers and condolences to all. Love you all.

“ My deepest condolences to the Franklin family, I met Tasha, Gwen and Prince back in the 80's when we all attended Damascus Holy Life Baptist Church on E Russell, and sung in the choir together...

As a teenager myself I remember how beautiful and grounded the whole family was, although I had not seen the family since the 80's, Tasha's lovely smile stood out in this announcement and the wonderful and warm memories took me back to when we were kids...

To the entire Franklin and extended family you are in my thoughts...
