“ *Dear, dear friends,
We hardly know what to say or do when such unthinkable events occur. First we are stunned. Then we remember our own losses. Then we wonder: What can we do to support you and remind you of what you already know--that God is still God; that He never makes mistakes; that He orders what is best from His great providence.*

Even though we cannot be present, our hearts are touched by your grief. We love you all.

“ We truly must live as if each day is our last...My heart is heavy, once again...I cannot believe you are gone Nate! When sis stated Friday night she heard you were dead...it took a few reruns to figure out what might be going on. I will miss u much. I pray that this loss may encourage others to walk with the Lord each moment & be ready for that great getting up morning. 1 Thessalonians 5: 16-24
