“ To the Nathaniel Taylor Family, This message of prayers and heartfelt condolences comes to you with a humble heart as we, the Yarbrough Family share in your loss.

Our fond memories of Nathaniel are of his very jubilant personality. He always brought a smile to your face upon seeing and greeting him

He never wanted you to feel down or sad, and upon parting with you, he usually left you laughing.

His beautiful smile was one of his signature traits, that, of course and dancing. Nathaniel was quite the dancer and taught us as teenagers the latest dance moves.

Nathaniel and family lived next door to our church growing up. and his Mother, Mrs. Corrine was always pleasant to us all as children and young adults. The Taylor Family continues to be special people who will always be fondly remembered.

Nathaniel often made mention on Social media of his relationship with the Lord and devoted himself to a well lived life.

May you rest in joy and peace, Nathaniel, until we all meet again. never again to say goodbye.

Humbly Submitted,

Rev Dr Sylvia Yarbrough & Family.
