“ Shock, that this event has taken place. To the family of Netra and her dear husband, I would like to extend my deepest condolences. I met Netra in 1999 after getting hired by the Flint board. There was a spirit-to-spirit connection something I'd never experienced. Been friends since.

In our conversations, Netra never gossiped but, spoke with kindness never displayed any base in her voice that would indicate aggressiveness. A virus woman I believe she was, someone who in my opinion was an example of how a married woman conducts herself.

"I needed that".

Netra was so humble and was not a prideful individual. She was well admired as we so often shared that we were so happy to be friends during our long conversations.

We learned a lot from each other.

I love you girl!! Rest in the arms of our God

Linda Smith

God, I pray your protection be with this family and you forever comfort them.

“ Netra had such a pure heart; every time I saw her, she always greeted me warmly and with a smile. It didn't matter how much time had passed by, she made it seem as though we had just saw each other the day before. She always had a funny story and made sure she asked about my kids. She was always the same, and that is something that I will never forget. Rest in Heaven, cousin.
