“ To the Children of Mrs. Norris Williams, David I know how you feel, I lost my mom and you were a very caring supportive friend. Just find solace in knowing she's in a better place, although she's know longer here in the flesh, you carry her with you each day because you are a part of her. She was a very beautiful strong black woman, who raised you with so much love. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Take this time to get closer to God because only he can help you to make it through your time of sorrow.

Love you.
