“ To the Robinson family, my thoughts and prayers are with you all during your time of bereavement. Mr. Robinson was a wonderful man who touched the lives of so many, and he'll be greatly missed. I thank God for having the opportunity of knowing Deacon Robinson and the Robinson family for the past 30 years, all of you are family to me. Please know that Deacon Robinson is resting safely and securely in the arms of Jesus and is at peace, for he is just another soldier that went on home to be with his Lord. I will continue to uplift you all in my prayers. God bless and I love you all dearly.

“ To The Entire Robinson's Family:

May the Peace of God which passes all understanding be fulfilled in your lives. May the Holy Spirit Comfort You Now and Always. Let not your heart be troubled. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can't heal. God will make your burdens lighter and "He Will Take Care Of You." It is with great sorrow that I leave these few words. Just know that Deacon Oddie Robinson doesn't have to suffer with the troubles of this world any longer. It is so sad that we've lost such an "Amazing Man" on earth but remember family we gained an Angel in Heaven to look down upon us and help us along the path God has chosen for us, just as God has chosen for "Deacon Robinson." To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord!!! My prayer is that these words will comfort you in the loss of "Deacon Robinson" your precious Husband, Father, Grand-Father and Uncle.

In the book of Psalm 46:1 says God is our refuge and strength an ever present help in trouble. Sis. Robinson & Family just know that "Deacon Robinson" has a new body, and he is pain free. No more suffering and restless nights for "Deacon Robinson." Our Heavenly Father makes no mistakes. He only takes the best!!!!

I believe that everything happens for a reason, even though God does not always reveal the reason to us. God called "Deacon Robinson" home because he didn't want his child in any more pain. We must now wait patiently until that "One Sweet Day" comes, the day that we will unite with "Deacon Robinson" again. Family, weeping comes only for a night, but "JOY" comes in the morning. Just know Deacon Oddie Robinson would want you all to live your life to its fullest!!! All in due time your pain will turn into "JOY" and your memories of Deacon Robinson, you'll hold dear and close to your heart!!!

Family, find your comfort, courage, and strength in the Lord. Just fall down on your knees and call him. God knows and he will Take Care Of You. My prayers and thoughts are with you every day. Sister

Robinson and family, just know that I Love You All and if there is anything that I can do, please feel free to call me anytime of the day or night. May God continue to Keep You and Bless You his Loving Arms!! Remember, the Joy Of The Lord Is Your Strength!!!! Love Always, Ms. Ivy Herron (Granddaughter of the late Mrs.Malinda Ivy Vaughn)
