Odilia “Lila” Marie Harris (Maiden name: Sedillo) was born on August 5, 1927 in Mountainair, New Mexico to parents, Mother: Petra Montañó and Father: Marcos Sedillo. Lila has been a resident of Flint, MI since 1956, where she and her late husband, George Haralson, raised 9 children. Lila was a dedicated wife and mother. She poured her entire life into raising her children in a loving and faith-filled home. Lila had a passion for cooking and decorating. It was her dream to open a restaurant and even though her dream never became a reality, she ran her kitchen like a restaurant where her family enjoyed three delicious meals around the table every day. She packed lunches for her children that made their classmates drool. Lila took her role as a wife and mother very seriously. She was up early every morning and did not sleep until her work was finished. She was strong, courageous, and very wise. Lila loved her family but she also cared about people and humanity. She loved pets, especially cats. She always had comforting and encouraging words and prayers to offer up. Lila was interested in politics and world events, nature, and the weather. If you ever wanted to know what was going on in the world, you could call her and she would update you. When her children grew up and moved away, she traveled to visit them and continued to support her children and her grandchildren. Lila had a heart of gold. To know her was to love her. Lila passed away peacefully at home on April 14, 2021 at 7:26 in the morning. She leaves eight children, Paulette Hunter (Richard), Mark Haralson (Renna), Lila Sellers (Steve), Hattie Burnett (Michael), Pamela Fowlkes, Ronald Haralson, Ricardo Haralson and Sabrina Haralson. She also leaves numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. Lila leaves quite a family legacy. Lila was preceded in death by her husband Eddie L. Harris, ex-husband George Haralson Sr., Son George Haralson, Jr., both of her parents, all of her siblings (she was the only living member of her family), and 3 grandsons. Special thanks to Pastor Eric Lewis and Pastor Clarence Lewis.
