“ My sincere sympathies are with the family During your time of mourning, I would like to express my sincere condolence at the loss of your loved one. I have not been able to speak to the family personally however, when we lose a loved one to death the loss seems too great to bear and no words can express the hurt and anguish nor touch on how you feel but God shares your tears and gives the family His love. May you find comfort in persistent prayers, as "the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your heart and your mental powers." [Phil. 4:7]

“ Dear family of Odolphs Evans, I send my deepest sorrow. This time period is so hard on young men. The Bible calls these, "the last days, critical times" (2 Timothy 3:1-5). So that is why it was really loving on our Heavenly Father, Jehovah to send his son, Jesus to save us. Soon Jesus will be used to erase all of the sorrows mankind feel. He will awaken Odolphs from sleeping in death, which is called a resurrecton. (John 5:28,29) and will return him to his love ones. When Jesus was on earth he did several resurrections as an example of what would be done in the near future. Read of one for yourself in the bible book of John, the 11th chapter, verses 11-14, 43,44. Then you will receive comfort in knowing Odolphs can and will live again. God promises! (Psalms 37:29)

“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.
