“ As we say goodbye to a sister, a mother, and a child hood friend and a neighbor. My mother, Martha Mays, took Olivia to school, so that she could finish at Pierson school. We became good friends, I remember changing my birth date to the 27th so that we could have the same birthdate. We became 16 and my birth date was actually 26 May but because we were friends we laughed. We got a drivers license. But, we always remain friends, I thank God for Olivia, and having such a wonderful and positive attitude, just a strong woman! I'm so glad that we had the seasons, of life, as friends! I know that God did blessed us, and I know He Keeps us! I Love you my Sista! Rest in Peace My Friend

“ I don't know what to say about this one. Olivia will never let me forget that my mom (Gloria Rush) taught her how to drive. I said no wonder you drive so fast. 😂 and the time I watched Maya and had her sleeping in the padded laundry basket (crib). I'm gonna miss you. The realist to ever do it. 🙏❤️🌹🙏
