“ Granny I will always love and cherish you. You were the backbone of our family without you I am not sure how we can go on. Your words and wisdom will always be treasured and carried on through our family for generations.

You were loved so much by all your children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews. I know you are in a better place Heaven with all those that left this world earlier, now you can spend your time getting reacquainted with them. I will always love you.

“ Mother Dear, I sit here as I type this and wonder why did you have to leave us. I guess our selfishness will speak for us. We never thought you would be leaving us even though you were 90 years old, we figured you had another 10 years to give us. I thank God for the relationship that you and I established through the years of shopping, going to the bank, getting tobacco, etc. It was an awesome privelege being your granddaughter. Thank you for your wisdom and love. I'll miss you "Madear". Love you, Juanita
