Baby Girl Onesty Lashay Johnson, "Onnie" as we so lovingly call her. She was a precious gift from God. "Onnie" was gifted to us to show us how to be strong. How to be determined and fight for what we want. As she did from the very first day until the very last day. For 2 months she fought to be here with her mommy and daddy, brother and sister. She fought to be in our hearts and lives. "Onnie" wanted us to have faith and trust in God. Mom and dad talk about missing her tiny little cries. Wanting them to put her binky back after she spit it out. The way her big brother just called her "baby". No we don't understand why God needed her back so soon, but we will eventually be content knowing she is in Gods arms. We know that we won't get to sing to her, but she gets to hear the songs of the heavenly angels. We will miss her beautiful big eyes watching us, but now she gets to gaze into the eyes of the Lord. We want to thank you Jess for watching over our precious little princess until we meet her again.
