“ My most heartfelt condolences to Tanya and the Brown family. May God comfort your hearts in the days to come. I remember Sister Ora Lee Brown as a true prayer warrior. She was my first prayer partner. We were put together by the Late Bishop W. E. Bogan. I can only praise God for his wisdom. I tell you God answered so many of our prayers. I thank God for her humble spirit and her genuine love. She was a woman of great wisdom, even though she she was soft spoken. It is my prayer that God will continue to strengthen you, your children, and the family in the days to come.
