“ To the Gipson Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*

Acknowledging our Friend Sister Barbara Hendrix Newborn (Arkadelphia, Arkansas), the Aunt of Sister Ora Gipson, her husband and Family, please accept our deepest heartfelt condolences. Reflecting upon the many times Sister Barbara shared with us about her niece Ora, that she dearly loved, her life was a beautiful gift to the world in which we live. Her soul has moved on to a higher place, but she will forever be alive in the hearts of those who dearly loved her. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves a memory no one can steal.
