Flint Park Blvd and may be viewed from 12:00 PM-6:00 PM Thursday with family being present 3:00 PM-6:00 PM

Sister Orris Leeta Hall was born in Rison, Arkansas, on October 10, 1931, to the late Washington Powell and Ella Jane Powell. She made her transition to her heavenly home on April 25, 2026. Sister Hall attended the school system in Rison, AR. She continued her education at the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff (UAPB) and later completed the Teacher Preparation Program at Michigan State University. She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star. Sister Hall married her late husband, John A. Hall, in 1955. They were blessed to welcome their only son, Johnny Steven Hall.

At an early age, Sister Hall proclaimed her love for Christ. Her Christian journey led her to become an active and proud member of Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in Flint, Michigan, in 1967. She was a faithful member of the Senior Inspirational Mass Choir, Sunday School Class #8, and the Trustee Board. Educating and inspiring young people was a great passion for Sister Hall. She taught for more than 50 years in the Flint School System.

After retiring from the Flint Schools, Sister Hall continued teaching in the Charter School System. She devoted her life to fostering a love of learning and empowering students to reach their full potential. Whether it was in the classroom, during Saturday detention, or on a trip to the mall; Sister Hall used every moment to touch the lives of her students and colleagues. The impact she made was unwavering. Sister Hall was undoubtedly a lifelong educator and dedicated mentor.

She was known for her impeccable sense of style. She loved to dress in her sophisticated suits, fabulous church hats, and beautiful shoes. The way she carried herself with grace, she was the very definition of elegance.

Sister Orris Leeta Hall leaves her legacy to: her grandchildren, Chenita (Kedric) Campbell of Detroit, MI, John Anthony (Fatima) Hall of Virginia Beach, VA and Kevin (Katia) Hall of Chesapeake, VA; great-grandsons, Jaylen and Jamir Campbell, both of Detroit, MI, Kason and Kamden Hall of Chesapeake, VA; sister-in-law, Gladys Powell of Flint, MI; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends. She also leaves to cherish her late son's fiancé, Constance Mickel of Flint; special friends, Dana Simmons of Flint and Gwendolyn Campbell of Detroit, MI.

Preceding Sister Hall in death was her husband, John Albert Hall; only son, Johnny Steven Hall; parents, Washington and Ella Jane Powell; and daughter-in-law, Lenora Diana Hall. She was also preceded in death by four sisters and six brothers.

May God's grace continues to bless all who have been touched by the unconditional love of Sister Orris L. Hall.

“ She was one teacher that didn’t play but one thing is for sure we all remember her because she mad an impact on our of our lives that we will remember and take with us in our minds and our hearts! I had been asking about her for years to speak to her as an adult so she could see how far some of us came! Longfellow and after school/saturday detention will for ever be lit to me now as a memory!

“ MY condolences to the grandchildren of Mrs Hall. I will always hold a special place in my heart because you made me feel like your daughter when I was much younger. I will always remember the lunches that we had in Detroit and the shopping trips that we took and the blue bedroom suit that I helped you pick out that you still have. I remember you made me feel like you were my other mother. The beautiful values you instilled and me and the long talks that we had many many times. May you rest in God's arms in his present and beautiful peace. You were a legend rest well Mrs Hall.

“ If you haven't received one of her hand written notes in the choir stand, you wasn't special lol. She helped me through a rough patch in my life. She always said she knew I was listening to her when she talked to me and I asked how she knew, and she said " because whenever you see me coming you didn't turn and go the other way.

“ I spoke to Mrs Hall in march.. we talked about alot of things we reminisced about our “ride out” trips. I will miss her and miss our rides. I have so many fond memories. She always spoke so highly of her grandkids. Glad I followed my first mind and reach out to her. Tomorrow isn’t promised. She lived life purposefully. I will always remember all the great advice she gave me. I know heaven is rejoicing... as well as Mr. Hall.. Stevie.. and Mr. Earl... 🙏
