“ TO ROYCE, NISHA, TRINA AND THE REST OF THE GRIIGS FAMILY. YOU ALL HAVE MY DEEPEST AND MOST SINCERE SYMPATHY FOR YOUR LOSS. I KNOW WHAT YOU HAVE BEEN GOING THRU THIS PAST WEEK AND I'VE SHARED YOUR SHOCK AND YOUR PAIN. I KNOW THAT YOU ALL ARE DEEP-ROOTED IN YOUR FAITH AND YOU KNOW AND UNDERSTAND HOW GOD WORKS. NISHA, you know that you are a household name. Anytime I'm on they phone, they all say "You talking to Nisha?" My daughters bowl with your cousin so I know they will be looking him up. You know what we've talked about so you already know that Granddaddy is walking and talking, he told you that himself, into a much better place. But keep talking to him bcuz I know he can hear you, unless he's busy making banana pudding. Take care of Dad, tell him he don't have to be strong for anyone anymore. His Daddy is on a new journey and I promise you, he ain't looking back. He was was already packed and ready to travel. Needless to say I'll be there for you, you ARE my family-from me and mine with much LOVE-Naye

“ Mr. Oscar was a good man. I grew up next door to him. His mail would always come to my house and I would always be the one to take it to him. Everytime I saw Mr. Oscar he always had a smile on his face and he was always dressed nice in his suits. I use to have fun going to auctions and I would go up to him and ask him not to bid on certain things that I wanted. And he wouldn't bid. :). My heart goes out to the whole family. It's still hard for me to believe that he is gone. I always thought that he would be around for many more years. At the time of his death I had left Flint for 2 weeks to find a house in Arkansas. I didn't find out about his death until I came Back for a week. Stay strong and God will see you all thru this hard time.

Love Kayla
