“ I remember holding long conversations with Oscar over to my fiance Aunt Linda house..He was such a warm and honest man...He had some jokes also. I always keep in my mind 2Cor. 1:3,4...it talks about the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God...Oscar Jones, my friend, will truly be missed....
