Mr. Otis Craig Walker, Sr. was born October 16, 1960 in Flint, Michigan, the son of the late Shirley (Woodson) Bradley and Otis Walker Jr. He was a graduate of Flint Northern High School, "Class of 1978," graduating early to begin his enlistment in the United States Navy. He served his country from February 21, 1978 until February 20, 1984. After completing his years of service he relocated to Jacksonville, Florida temporarily and back home briefly to Detroit, Michigan. Only to later transition to New York, making this his permanent home for 35 years. Once in New York, Craig established and founded Walker Personnel Services. This business allowed him to fulfill his passion of helping others by providing a wide range of job placement opportunities. He also worked with local organizations in NY, such as Wildcat and CEC (Career Education Consultants) for many years, serving those within the community that were faced with challenges such as re-entering the workforce after incarceration. This career path and the results were definitely self-rewarding and gratifying to him. Craig was known for providing words of wisdom, encouragement and advice to his family and friends. With determination and a very positive attitude, he lived life to the fullest! He worked hard but he always had fun, especially on his visits home to Michigan. Mr. Otis Craig Walker, Sr. leaves to cherish his memory: wife of 20 years, Mernette Felicia Grimes-Walker; son, Otis Craig Walker, Jr., both of Brooklyn, NY; 3 daughters, Marcia Grimes of Bronx, NY, Shontaysha Grimes of Brooklyn, NY and Nikia Rogers of Jacksonville, FL; 7 grandchildren, Brianna Moore, Anyah Moore and Chad Isaac Moore, all of Bronx, NY; Danielle Street of Brooklyn NY, William Rogers, Jayden Dawsey and Nicholas Dawsey, all of Jacksonville, FL; 3 sisters, Jeanine (Aaron) Dixon of Las Vegas, NV, Karla Bowen and Angela Lee, both of Flint, MI; mother-in-law, Luevenia Grimes of Brooklyn, NY; 4 aunts, Dorothy Evans, Johnnie Louise Peters, and Jerusha Walker, all of Newton, MS, Peggy S. Bowen, of Flint, MI; host of great nieces, great nephews, other relatives including special cousins, Derrick Rose, Ada, Juana, Lil Mark and Brent Woodson, Lynn and Lloyd (Tony) Miller, special lifelong friends, Wayne Cason, Carl Glenn and Terry Lane.
