Ann received Christ at an early age and became a member of Gospel Temple Missionary Baptist Church and later became a member of Holy Trinity Missionary Baptist Church. She received her education from Flint Community Schools. Upon graduation, she attended and graduated with a degree in Business from Detroit College of Business. Prior to her illness, she was employed by Richert Manor as an Intake Coordinator. She was also employed with Mar-du as a Floral Assistant until the time of her passing. The dedication and commitment that she consistently bestowed upon her family could not be measured. It is without a doubt that this responsibility was the center of her zest and zeal. In spite of her illness, she offered assistance to an array of family and friends. "Ann" was truly a driving force when it came to those that she considered "FAMILY." In addition to her family and friends, reading and enjoying a Saturday morning Blues session brought about sheer delight. She was indeed an exceptional Woman, Sister, Daughter, Aunt, Family Member and Friend. "Ann" leaves a vast amount of precious memories, unique perspectives and ideologies. To continue her legacy, she leaves: two sisters, Marva Dukes and Thelma Lewis; godson, Tyrell Richardson; aunts, Nettie King of St. Louis, MO and Bobby (Perry) Gullie of Prescott, AR, Edna Kahee of Flint; uncles, Clifford Kahee of Staten Island, NY and Edward Kahee of Flint; nieces, Latoya Lewis, Bionca Lewis, Crystal Cockrane, Cierra Greer and Nicole Hubbard; nephews, Alvin (Katrina) Hare, Quintin Kahee, Micheal Hubbard, Asleigh Tillman and Jeffrey Williams; special great nieces and nephews, Ja'Kavien Lewis, Semaj Jenkins and Amishi Shields, Katysha Palmore, Janero Hare, Jamel Hare, Jalen Hare and Teril Cooper; a host of other relatives and friends in the Kahee, Snowden, Gullie, King, Brown, Lock, Hollins and McClinton families survive; special friends, Donna Collins and Marion Halloway.
