Pamela Denise Scott of Flint, MI. age 64 passed away Monday November 17, 2025, at her residence in Pheonix, AZ. She was born the daughter of Dolly Morgan and Frederick Scott on July 28, 1961, in Flint, MI. She attended Flint Community Schools and graduated. She earned her Nursing Assistant Certification and was a dedicated and nurturing caretaker for many years.

Pam had many hobbies including singing, dancing, playing cards and dominoes. She loved listening to good music. Pam's greatest passion was spending time with family and friends. Before moving away from Michigan, Pam was a member of Southeast Christian Church. Pam had a heart of gold. She loved being around and hosting people. She had a special gift for making others feel valued. Pam had an infectious laugh that would make anyone around her laugh too. Pam finally overcame her fear of flying and became an avid traveler with her fur baby Precious.

Pamela Denise Scott is survived by her daughters: Stephanie (Stanley Jr.) Brown, Palina (Billy) Buckner, Sirena Arkwright; grandchildren: Jalyn, Dion, Stanley III, Dionna, Jazmine, Amir, Maseo, Ahmaree; great-grandson: Jayden; brothers: Gregory Jr., James Jr.; sisters: Denise, Monique; uncles: Silas(Norma) III, William "Papoose"; Brenda, Theresa, Rosalin; nephews: Curtis, Gregory III; niece: Nykia; cherished cousin: Nicole (Zo) and daughters (Alonna, Arianna) whom Pam treated like her own grandchildren. Members of her "Golden Girls" Trio (Eva, Gwen). She also leaves behind a host of family and friends.

Pamela was preceded in death by her parents: Dolly Morgan and Frederick Scott; step-father: Dennis Morgan; son: Aaron Robinson; son's father: Osceola Robinson; grandparents: Bessie and Silas Jarrett Jr., Frances Norman; brother: Herbert "Sluggo" Cleaves.
