“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that we will never get use to. In my times of sorrow I have found comfort in John 5:28,29 which says that one day we will see our loved ones again.

“ I sincerely offer my condolence for Pastor Oscar Clayborne. His character is a tribute to his life. It is not concession to death. Death is a horizon, the limit of your sight, but not God's memory. So, celebrate the unforgettable memories you shared with him. Yet, when a love one has passed, no matter who we are it is painful. "Do not two sparrows sell for a coin of small value? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's knowledge. You are worth more than many sparrows."(Matthew 10:29, 31). Therefore, He knows your sorrow and pain.

When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. Author Unknown
