“ My dearly beloved 3rd sister, From your 4th sister, I will miss you sorely. I just can't believe you are gone. I just talked to you a few days ago. I apologize I did not make it in time to take you to Mt. Pleasant but you knew I was on my way. Who will care like you? Who will I call every Saturday morning? Who will encourage me to hang in there when my classes get too rough? Who will tell me "You knew you were a senior citizen before you started that master's program". My sister with God's grace and your encouragement, I will graduate this December 07. Pat, I believe you are a soldier and you never complained to me. I know I will see you again and there will be lots of things we will be able to talk about. I will encourage Jonathan and keep in touch with him. I will keep all of your canvasses you made for our sister's retreat and remember all the good times we shared. I will never forget how I thought I could beat you up when we were kids until you hit me back and a huge knot swelled on my head, then I knew you were my big sister and that deserved respect. Patricia, I thank Jehovah for allowing you to be a dynamic presence in my life and my most of all my sister. Words can not express the emotions I am feeling right now, So all I can do is what our Mama would always say to us and tell us to do and that is "Pray and do the best you can", and those words are coming to mind right now while I am trying to be strong. Much Love to my Sista Pat. From your Sista, Marilyn (aka Mo).

“ To my loving sister-in law and sister Pat, whom we will always remember your loving ways. To me, you had the best heart of all of us, you always wanted to keep the peace and you did. Knowing the truth about what happens after we die, frees us from fear that our love ones are suffering. John 11:25 tells us about the resurrection and gives us comfort to those who have lost a loved one in death. So Pat, I know that you are sleeping. John 5:25 assures me "that all in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out"... LOVE YOU!!! Your baby sister Janice (AKA J.T. and LADY J.)

“ I have fond memories of my cousin Pat. Although it has been some time since I saw her, it seems as though whenever I had the chance to see her, she was always smiling. Thats how I will remember her. Life is so short and full of anxiety, we all have to take every opportunity we have to spend time with each other, call or write, even if its just to say, I love you.

“ In Mama's Garden of Life stands a beautiful six-petal flower. On October 7, 2007 at 4:30 in the morning one was dimmed forever. Pat, you left us on my birthday which was devastating for us all. In my quiet time, I do have my moments of pain, which I know will ease as time goes by. You will certainly be missed. I will always remember your infectious laugh.

Love,
Your Big Sister

“ Jonathan No bond is as great as that between a parent and child. My deepest condolences are with you as you grieve.

Jonathan, Walterean, Lillian, Marilyn, Stan, and Janice I was deeply sadden when I heard the news about Pat. We all loved her, but God loved her more. I am also sorry that I can not be with you during this time physical but I will be there in the spirit Do not hesitate to call if you want to talk. Keep your eyes on Jesus. I love you Aunt Ree.

“ I am truly sorry that my cousin had to pass away, however, we know now that she is not hurting anymore nor is she in any pain. We live for the day when Jesus will call her name to wake up to us again.

May Jehovah continue to give you all the endurance you need to keep going.

“ To my Aunt Patty,
I only regret not being a little closer, and not being able to exchange a couple of more words with you. As a child, and the earlier years when you were able to visit us, I had grown fond of your easy-going, and often times, playful manner-ie joking with us kids and mom & video games, gameboy etc. But know that I love you Aunt Pat, and one day I hope to see you again so we can catch up on the words we missed.

“ *?Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning?
(Psalms 30).*

My Dear Pat,

May Peace Be With You. Oh how I was devastated to hear about my Aunt. Everyday since that news my heart has been aching and sadden. Trishann (is what I would call you), was a good person. I will remember your determination and strive to be better. I will also remember you watching HGTV and other decorating shows. You always had ideas of things that you wanted to create and that show was a big influence on that. I could ask you anything about what was going on in the country and you would know, because you always keep up with current events. Death is hard for anyone but it is devastating when it hits home, especially when I grew up with Pat always around. She would barbecue for us in the summer and we would have a good time. She loved to talk and laugh and I can hear that laugh now. HGTV lost a dedicated viewer but we lost a precious jewel. I was glad that you got a chance to meet my little man CJ. Rest now my precious aunt and may God rest your soul.

*We didn't know that morning
God was going to call your name,
In Life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide,
And although we cannot see you
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,*

*But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

“ *To Jonathan, Pat's Sisters, and all the family:
We would like to express our deepest sympathy to you for the loss of our loved one, Pat.
No one knows how each one feels but we all understand the pain and sadness brought by the death of a loved one.
We hope and pray that you find comfort in each other and most of all Jehovah God. For he has promised that one day, the pain of death will be a thing of the past. (Revelation 21:4)
"And He Will Wipe Every Tear From Their Eyes And Death Will Be No More, Neither Will Mourning Nor Outcry, Nor Pain, Be Anymore.
The Former Things Have Past Away"

“ *To Jon Jon and Pat's Sister
At times of great sorrow, it is difficult to say what is really in our hearts. Please be assured that our loving God, Jehovah and his son Jesus Christ are deeply concerned and aware of the pain that we experience with the lost of a loved one. Psalms 34: 18 tells us that he is near to those who are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit. Lean upon him for he is the God of all comfort and he will help you during this most difficult time (2 Corn. 1: 3,4). I will remember Pat as a kind, sweet, compassionate person with a mild spirit and a genuinely good heart. Love all of you.*

“ My favorite memory of Pat was harassing her when we both worked at Hurley and I worked in the outpatient pharmacy.

I recall noticing that she hadn't picked up her blood pressure pill. I called her up and asked when she was coming to get and she told me I'll be done later. I said, come on down now. Within minutes she was at the pick up window, nose sweating, to get it. She said she didn't want to hear my mouth so she came on down.

She'll be greatly missed!

“ Peace Prayer
by St. Francis

*Lord,
Make me an instrument of Your peace.*

*Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light, and
Where there is sadness, joy.*

O, Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek

*To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and
It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

We love you Auntie Pat, until will meet again, you will be dearly missed and remembered always!
