Mrs. Patricia Mae Cotton was born January 24, 1951, in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of Charles and Agnes Austin. Patricia was a resident of Flint and a member of Foss Avenue Baptist Church. She graduated from Flint Beecher High School and Western University. Patricia enjoyed shopping, playing games on her tablet and eating crab legs. She loved to cook for her family, neighbors and friends. Patricia always had a good word with a smile and laughs to go with it. She would give you the shirt off her back if you asked for it. Her kindness was immeasurable, and she lived her life her way and would often say "they talked about Jesus Christ" so in other words, what makes us so special that they wouldn't talk about us, so live your life, because they are going to live theirs. Mrs. Patricia Mae Cotton leaves to cherish her memory: 2 daughters, Doris (John) Henderson of Houston, TX; Felicia Thompson of Chicago, IL, James Crain and Tiffany Crain of Flint; grandchildren, D'Veicia Cotton, Kylan (Shelby) Chapman, Merquan Chapman, Reekila Thompson, Diamond Chapman and Darris Thompson II;

great-grandchild, Vincent D'Andre McClinton Jr.; god-grandchildren, Alexis, Shayla, Sheldon and Brandon; 2 sisters, Norma and Vildred; 6 nieces; 5 nephews; cousins, Romona, Rotrece, Anita, Tammy, Tiffany, Darshal, Ronald and Stephen; a host of other relatives and friends including her dearest friend her "Turkey" Druann Ernest Wells; cousin, Joey and special friend, James. Mrs. Cotton was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Agnes Austin; grandmother, Sallie Morgan; brother, Jerome Austin; aunts, Bertha, Mary and Jeanette; cousins, Helene, Anthony, Rubie Mae, Dennis, Frederick, Gloria Jean, Junior and Alfred; dear friend, Mary Mitchell. The family would like to express special thanks to her granddaughter, "Stank" D'Weicia for her unwavering and continuous love and support.

“ Thank you to everyone for your sincerest condolences, I tried to respond to each post but it won't let me. You are appreciated, I am missing my mama so much. Our weekly and or our daily conversations💔. Her laughing and her beautiful smile, I LOVE her so much. So many times I have picked my phone up to call her to either share something with her or say “I haven't heard from you today Lady.”

“ *A Tribute to My Sister Patricia
A Sisters' Unconditional Love
If you didn't have an older Sister that gave You unconditional love, support, protection, advise, caring and sharing – you missed a tremendous blessing.
You see, I have that, not had, HAVE!
It's eternal – our relationship.
It's planted in my heart and spirit. Oh, the memories I could share, but that would have you reading well into the night. I am sure you have them too – but the following one is the most important to me.
A few years ago, our Mama, my sisters and I came together at our Daddy and Mama's house.
During that time Patricia (I usually call my sister's by their given name's instead of Pat) testified about her relationship with Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. We all couldn't help but lift up a word of praise and rejoice
Thanking God's for continued covering and blessings, even though we didn't deserve it. When Jesus Christ comes back for us, we will all be together again.
So, while I grieve for the loss of her physical presence, Spiritually, I rejoice. No more pain, Patricia, no more sorrow.
Joy came in the morning!
Love you always,
Your Little Sis,
Vildred
