“ To Daisy and the Family,
Your heartache is my heartache, your pain is my pain. Your sister was my sister and my dear friend. My prayer is that you will find comfort in knowing that knew the Lord and is at peace with him now. It doesn't minimize our lost but it increases Heaven's gain. If you know nothing else, know that she loved you and that her prayer was that would come to know Jesus as you personal Lord and Savior. If I had to put a title on Pat's life, I would use the song "I never lost my praise" because truly even though she had to go through alot, she continued to praise God. She kept the faith. She held up the blood-stained banner. Pat will be missed by my family because she was one of our family. My mother, sisters, children, grandchildren, and myself have truly lost a jewel. We pray God's continued blessing on your family as you go through this time of sorrow. And as you go from this point on in your life, remember that only what you do for Christ will last. If you don't know Him, get to know Him on a personal level and you will see Pat again. She'll be looking for you.

“ Did you know that God promises death will be no more. There is an encouraging thought found at Isaiah 25:8 which says that God will swallow up death forever. I hope you find this thought encouraging. One day we wont lose our loved ones in death.

“ We didn't know how to get in touch with you but you were never forgotten in the family. I remember as children, Aunt Bell and Uncle Blue would always give you a birthday party and the neighborhood children and family would all come to your party. You got tons of toys and the money jar was always full. The party was always held in the front yard and we always had icecream, cake, peanuts, potatoe chips and punch, and of course there was a write up in the newspaper about the party. It was so much fun. I am going to miss you Cousin but I will never forget you. I am so glad we found you again. Love always rest in peace.
