“ To the Family of Patricia Gilcrest Frazier:

May the Lord lift the weight that is weighing heavy on your hearts. Pat was such a beautiful person inside and outside. Perhaps a poem by Robert Louis Stevenson sums it up best:

*He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much;
Who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children;
Who has filled his niche and accomplished his task;
Who has left the world better than he found it;
Who has looked for the best in others and given the best he had;
Whose life was an inspiration
Whose memory is a benediction*

*Pat definitely exemplified the sentiments expressed in this poem.
She will be sorely missed.*

“ To the family of Patricia Frazier I send my deepest sorrows. The pain will ease but your memories will last until you are reunited. (John 5:28,29) No, I'm not saying her family will have to die to be reunited because soon death will be no more (Isaiah 25:8). And those sleeping in death will be awaken just like Lazarus. Please read this account in your bible because in these verses Jesus was giving us a sample of what WILL happen in the near future. John 11:11-14, 43 & 44. His Father, Jehovah has promised to let him do it. again.

“ Gil and Chubby

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Though I did not know Pat well, I knew her to be a beautiful person. I am also sorry that I can not be with you in your time of loss, but know that my prayers, thoughts and love are with you. But more important know that He who is your savior is with you and because of your relationship with him you will get through this. "Greater is He that is in you then he that is in the world". Lean on each other and hold on to God. I love you both.

“ Gil, Frances, Jeffrey, Whitney & families, we pain for the earthly separation of Pat, but God is rejoicing for her celebration in heaven. Be encouraged & be blessed knowing that you did everything earthly that you could do for Pat! God saw that she was getting tired & a cure was not to be, so he whispered my child, come on home to be with me! I have some special need children that need your help! You have been faithful in a few things, come on up & I will make you ruler over many! Absent from the body to be present with the Lord! Love your friends & church members, The Parker's!

“ I am truly sorry to hear about your loss. Even though I did not know Mrs. Frazier personally my condolences goes out to you and your family. Often during this time we turn to God for comfort. I have always for comfort through His scriptures particularly Rev 21:3,4 which assures us that soon death will be no more. I hope you find comfort as well in these verses.
