“ To the Mitchell & Scott Family:

Little did I know that the last time Puddin & I talked was "Good Bye". Not knowing for sure why I hadn't heard back from her, I have been calling her for the last 2 weeks. This morning (August 8, 2013) I returned from a visit to Flint only to find out about Puddin's service. Know that I share in your loss.

We have always kept in touch and shared our ups & downs. Not once did she waiver in her faith or complain. No matter what either one of us had been through since the last time we talked, she always found a way for us to laugh together.

Sometimes she was going through rough times and we just had to encourage each other.

I won't be able to come back for the service, but will be in prayer for strength in the days to come. Puddin walked the path God set for her, through the good days as well as the painful ones.

So, I must say so long, My Sister, My Friend. I know in my heart that we will surely meet again. I love you & miss you!

Lifting the Family up in prayer!

“ Dear Mitchell Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)

“ Dear Paul/Punchie, Nika, and Jamard:

I am sorry that you are experiencing the loss of your mother, my Aunt Paula. Aunt Paula was a beautiful, strong, and forgiving woman, and I understand how painful the loss of a parent is.

I'm thankful for having Aunt Paula as my aunt, and I'm thankful that God saw fit to allow her to live on in all of you. May the peace that surpasses understand keep you during this time.

*Love,
Your cousin Aniesha AKA Ne-Ne*
