“ I will miss you my friend. The memories we shared are priceless. Our children attending school together, the shopping trips, walking at the mall and late nights of me wanting to go to bed but you would stay up all night talking. We laughed together, we cried together and yes we fought each other with disagreements , but our love, friendship never was tested. The last words you said to me was (V) don't let this year go by and we not see each other and I never thought this would be the last time seeing you. Rest baby girl we can still have out Late night talks from heaven.

“ To the Hawkins Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious gift of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked? Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have death.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
