Ms. Pauline Rubin was born January 19, 1957 in Winnsboro, Louisiana, the daughter of Caileanor Jones and Clyde Rubin. Pauline lived in Flint, Michigan most of her adult life. She gave her life to Christ at an early age and lived on in his honor. Pauline graduated from Joliet Central High School in Joliet, IL, then took some college courses towards a degree in Social Work. She had to quit to care for her family. Pauline then moved to Michigan where she lived with her mother and the rest of her family from then on. She worked at Mott Children's Daycare for a time, but went back to school where she graduated from PSI with a degree in Business Administration. Pauline became a Regional Director for Amoco Gas Stations until she retired. She loved her nieces and nephews immensely and showed them in every way. Pauline loved baking especially on holidays and all the decorations. Christmas was her favorite holiday, she loved shopping online and in stores, playing video games on the computer, lottery scratch-offs and watching movies and TV. Pauline was feisty but loving, annoying but playful, fiercely loved her family and was the #1 aunt. Gone but never forgotten.
