“ On behalf of the Martin Family: Wilbert, Marian E., Alicia, Melonie, Paul, and Wilbert Jr., we express our sincerest condolences. We are devastated by the loss of our “ Aunt Pearl” as we children referred to her; and “Pearlie Mae” as our parents called her. Our families are inextricably linked and have been intertwined for as long as anyone can remember. From the young adulthood friendships of our parents before we were ever even born, to Aunt Liz joining the Martins by marriage; to our relationships growing up together with Harold Jr., Precious, Jennifer, Kim and the entire Robbs Family through our Canaan and Christ Fellowship days; we have ALWAYS been and will always be FAMILY. We have mourned the losses of siblings, children, spouses and parents TOGETHER. We have celebrated graduations, weddings, and births of children and grandchildren, TOGETHER. And now, with heavy hearts, we bid farewell to our precious Pearl, and although we can’t physically give our hugs and comfort to one another in person, we are still TOGETHER in Spirit and Love as FAMILY. We love you and are here for whatever you need as always, Jennifer and Kim. Please don’t hesitate to call. God bless you all, and may his Peace and comfort rest upon you now and always. - Love, The Martins

“ Family, we have to all bask in the fond moments & times we shared with Pearl. She was a “pearl” to those of us who knew & loved her. It’s the missing of the physical presence; however, that lively spirit is ever so present in our hearts. Pearl loved family & friends, just as we all loved her.
