There will be no public viewing. Mrs. Pearlie Webster was born February 16, 1951 in Helena, Arkansas, the daughter of Sam and Mary Ferguson. She was a God fearing woman and mother of three children, whom she was very proud of. Pearlie was a resident of Flint, Michigan. She was educated and trained to care for the need of others. Pearlie had a beautiful spirit and a kind heart that she was born with. Caring for others came natural for her. Pearlie worked in the HealthCare Field until she decided she needed to rest. Needless to say her "rest" has always been to ensure that her children and grandchildren had what they needed, no matter the circumstance. Pearlie loved children, reading, crocheting, gardening and her plants and flowers. Her love and strength will last our lifetime.

Mrs. Pearlie Webster leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Moses W. Webster; daughter, Mary (Willie III) Cox of Stone Mountain, GA; 2 sons, Demetrius Webster of Waldorf, MD and Derrick (Kinya) Webster; 12 grandchildren, Meleah, DeAnna, Derrick, Michelle, Farrod, Jeremiah, Ewjah, all of Flint, Takeisha, Lee Jr., Antonio, all of Detroit, MI, D'Asia and Taylor, both
