When he was not working at GM, he could be found working at home. Penella was a very quiet man, soft spoken, and mild in his mannerisms, but he enjoyed laughing and said many funny things. Penella was also an awesome Baker; baking such homemade goods like Coconut Cake, Jelly Cake, and Buttery Pound Cakes. He was an overcomer and cancer survivor as he defeated his bout with Hodgkin's Lymphoma Cancer more than 20 years ago. Penella loved the Lord and began attending Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church. He will be most remembered for loving his family and doing all that he could to be a provider for his sons, daughters and grandchildren.
