“ Tanya, it truly sadden and shocked my heart and mind, to hear of the lost, of your beloved: Sister and Father. Please know, that I will continiue to uplift, both you and Debra in my immediate prayers. Tanya "HOLD" on to Gods' unchanging hand. For only he, can ease the pain. and comfort you, when you need him most. Tanya always "KNOW", that God is only a prayer away. He cares for both you and Debra. Lean not, upon your own understanding...allow God, to: Lead, Guide, Comfort and Protect you. God is still Good. Prayerfully, Doris Moore-White and Family

“ Dearest Woodson Family, I am sorry to hear of your loss...I am a former resident of Flint and whenever I hear of deaths it moves me to encourage the family. God's Word always proves powerful in comforting us in times like these. Isaiah 25:8 is very comforting...there it speaks of how soon God will "swallow up death forever". That is a promise. May you find strength and comfort through friends and family. Thank you.

Sincerely, Tasha Brooks

“ My heart goes out to all of Phyllis's family and friends. Although I did not know her well, I spoke to her often at Flint Metal Center. She was a very nice person, caring about all her co-workers and doing a great job at work. I am so sorry she and her father are gone.
