“Sweet Mother of Mine”

Sweet mother of mine you're gone on your way.
To a place where there's joy all night and all day.
Where there is no sorrow, no heartache, nor pain
God sent for his child to come out of the rain.
At first I asked why, and this I confess
But Then I remembered, God always knows best.
She will no longer struggle to get through her days
So let us mourn, but rejoice and sing praise.
So lift up your heads and dry your teary eyes
And say “see you soon” for this is not goodbye.
Sweet mother of mine, you're gone on your way
Remember we love you, and we'll see you some day.

“ Words cannot express the loss that I am feeling for you all. I have know Phyllis since elementary when we use to get in trouble we always found ways of getting out. Phyllis was more like a sister to me. Over the years we lost touch but whenever we saw each other we always hugged and said I love you. I Love You Phyllis and God knew what was best. He never makes mistakes.and he knew you were tired. Rest my sister Rest.

Mrs. Boatwright, Deloris and Delano you have another angle watching over you. I will continue to keep you all in prayer.

“ God doesn't make any mistakes. My condolences first and foremost most goes out to Phyllis only son Clarence then her Mother Mrs Wright, sister Mr and Mrs Deloris Jackson and the father of her son Mr and Mrs Clarence Wilson. To my friend I will always remember your beautiful face with that smile and will cherish the moments we spent together. Only thing that bothers me is I wasn't there during your time of illness. I'm not going to beat myself up badly but I'm going to keep reading Psalm 121:1-2. I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and the earth.
