Princess Shauni Marissa Wade was born December 24, 2002 in Grand Blanc, MI, the daughter of Davey LaRon and Neisha Wade. Shauni was a very spunky and feisty little girl. Throughout her affliction, she was a fighter, she was independent and never gave up. She never complained unless her pain was unbearable, but now she has received her divine healing. She's God's Little Angel. Our Princess Shauni wanted to be a Fashion Designer and Make-Up Artist. She was indeed just that by giving makeovers to her many clients. Her sense of fashion and make-up was inspired by her Granny (LaVada Wade). She was blessed to have her dream fulfilled by going to Disney World, Build-A-Bear, Sephoria to get a makeover and going swimming. Princess Shauni Marissa Wade leaves to cherish her memory: parents, Davey LaRon and Neisha Wade; 2 sisters, Gabrielle Williams and Jadan Wade; grandparents, LaVada Wade, John Sanders, Wallace and Therena Elliott; 2 aunts, Tamera Wade and Briahna Elliott; 3 uncles, James Wade, Terry

(Adrina) Williams of Washington and Ian Elliott; a host of great aunts, uncles and cousins; god-parents, Noel and Caroline Pieters, special god-parent, Mother Ethel Dumas; other relatives and friends including, her buddy, D'Asia McCloud, Mr. and Mrs. Rozanski, Ms. Tran's Kindergarten Class 2009 and Mrs. Reaves' Pre-School Class 2008. Princess Shauni Marissa Wade was preceded in death by twin sisters, Amyiah and Mariah; grandmother, Cathia Williams, great-grandparents, Lee and Mattie Elliott, Lowell Williams, June Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. James Ingersoll; great-great grandmother, Exerine Crayton. The Wade family would like to express special thanks to: Pastor Eric Bogan and Harris Memorial Church family, Pastor Marvin Jennings and Grace Emmanuel Church family, Bunche School and staff, along with other Flint Community Schools, Genesys Rehab-Acute family, Tracie Brady, Faithway Day Care, GASC Technology Center, Dr. Mody and U of M staff, Celeste (Tots 'N Lots), the Make A Wish Foundation and everyone in the City of Flint and the surrounding area who have blessed our family in their giving.

“ I am so privileged to have met and known Shauni for the time that I did. Before we knew what her condition was, she showed strength and determination inspite of her pain. She played with her friends and was eager to do her classwork. She always had a smile for us throughout the day. After working with her in Pre-K, I was so excited to see her in Kindergarten at Pierce! She ran and hugged me and there was that smile again...I called Ms. Reaves and Mrs. Simek to share the joy with them. God proved he truly loves us by sharing that special Angel with us. May God give her family, friends, and all those she touched, peace and understanding in their hearts.

“ To the Family.....With deepest sympathy our prayers are with you during this difficult time. I had the pleasure of knowing Shauni as our daughters were in pre-k together. After hearing of Shauni illness, there wasn't a day that went by that she wasn't thought of by myself or Dasia. A great loss to many but a greater gain to the Heavens. May God Bless you all.

To LaRon As I learned of this sad day I shared with many and they all have you and your family in prayer.

“ To the Wade Family,

No earthly words can heal a saddened heart of a mother when she loses a child.

These words written by Max Lucado is most touching as a mother seeks the Lord daily on behalf of her children:

"Never underestimate the ponderings of a Christian parent. Never underestimate the power that comes when a parent pleads with God on behalf of a child. Who knows how many prayers are being answered right now because of the faithful ponderings of a parent. God listens to thoughtful parents. Praying for our children is a noble task. If what we are doing in this fast-paced society, is taking us away from prayer time for our children, were doing too much. There is nothing more special, more precious than time that a parent spends struggling and pondering with God on behalf of a child."

Shauni, was a special gift given to the Wade family. It's not easy to bear, but Glory to God! he knows how to comfort us in all special cases. I will say my prayers are with the entire Wade family and if you remember nothing else, know that God knows, sees, and hears the heartache and we will understand it all by and by.

Prayers,

“ Although, I never had a chance to meet my great niece I did come to know her though my sister (LaVada) she kept me well informed as to her progress doing her illness and even before her illness. I sometimes would get to speak with Shauni via phone while she was visiting her grannie. I know Missy Shauni is greatly loved and she will be missed. God has received her and she will never have to experience the pain in her little body ever again. This is the comfort that we know that being absent from her body she is present with the Lord.

May you Laron and Neisha find comfort and piece in knowing that Shauni is at rest and will always be with you in spirit.

My Prayer be with the family.

Much Love,

“ Although I never had the opportunity to meet "Princess Shauni" I felt as if I knew her through my niece "D'Asia" and her parents, I heard the many stories of their play dates and I wish I had just a glance of innocence at its best. We the McCloud family pray God's portion of Love, comfort and peace to the family at this hour, we thank you for allowing D'Asia the opportunity to share in her buddy's life. May God's peace be still for you at this time. Please know that we continue our prayers for you as you grieve.

“ Laron and Neisha, it was my first meeting of Missy Shauni at the twins open house/birthday gathering in 2008 where I was able to observe missy in action running around playing with my son Khaleen. At that time, I wondered wow this little young lady has a scarf on and with my medical background I knew that she had suffered from sort of illness but it was definitely not evident with all that feisty energy.....man (She definitely tired you out even just sitting down) smile!!

From that time, I was fortunate to have a few more encounters where I observed her really good days and her really bad days, however despite the latter she had a strength and determination to continue her fight that would make any complaining adult suffering from illness or ailment feel ashamed.

Shauni's life and the part that you played as her greatest parents were a true testament of the Grace and Strength that comes from God. Your endless sacrifice Laron and Neisha as parents of the children that you have lost and to the ones that are still living is beyond anything that I have witnessed thus far and my life has and will never be the same.

In addition, since my son and Shauni had the same birthday it was really something that my son was able to learn from...

Love you both as well as the girls....Now rest and play catch up for the time you dedicated your endless parenting love... Shauni and the twins are doing so Heaven.....
