“ Shameka, We are so sorry for your lost. Quantrell was a loving and caring person. He had a heart of gold you could see it in his eyes that he loved you and the children. He will be sadly missed. Now it is all in Gods hands and I know that things will be hard and a struggle but we know that you will be strong and keep your faith along with your loving children.

“ Dear Jamerson Family, I didn't personally know Mr. Jamerson. I really wanted to offer my sympathies to your family at this time. I have always drawn encouragement from the Bible. There is a promise that " God will wipe out every tear from our eyes... Death will be no more." (Rev.21:3,4) those are reassuring words and a promise yet to come. I hope that you and your children will have peace and great memories of your loved one.

“ Quantrell was a good man and I just am so hurt that his life ended at it's peak, God doesn't make mistakes. I am keeping his Wife Shameka and their children in my prayers. Shameka I can't imagine the hurt that you feel, I just want you to know that God is going to see you through this and you can call me if you need anything.
