“ From the day I entered into the family until the day he died, Ralph Bloodworth was "Pop", and through the years he has been the best father-in-law that I could have wanted. He was wise, kind, friendly and generous and a man I was proud to call "family" and he will be sorely missed.

“ Mr. Bloodworth was my neighbor growing up on Monroe St. We lived directly across the street from him and his family. My older brother was best friends with Edward. Mr. Bloodworth was always a sharp dresser, hard worker, and fun loving family oriented man who would go out of his way to make sure you were alright. He had an infectious smile and happy demeanor about himself that brightened a room when he entered. We will sadly miss him and that perpetual smile.
