“ Randy I can see you so clearly, your bright beautiful brown eyes, your wide vibrant smile that would melt any heart. My heart hurts really bad missing you already, however selfish that may be. You knew how much I loved you, but I thank God there was someone who loved you more, who took you from your pain and discomfort, now you're resting peacefully. For that I say "Thank God", I prayed for your healing yes God granted it, not the way I may have chosen, nevertheless God's will has been done. Sleep on I will forever love you.

“ Randy was a wonderful young man in school, and as the years pass I would see him in passing, and remember the good time we had as a classmate, My prayers are with the family, and may Randy rest in peace.

“ To the entire Waters family,
I am sorry to hear of Randy's passing. Before I moved, I ran into Randy and he had a chance to meet my daughter and he told her all about us growing up on Grace St. Randy and Lynne were the big brothers always looking out for us even though Randy was salty when we all started getting taller than him-lol. He always made the boys play fair when we played kickball and he would play on the girls team so we could win. :) He always kept a smile on his face and everyone around him with his crazy sense of humor. I can still see and hear him and my grandmother cracking jokes back and forth all day. And I remember how he used make Mrs. Waters laugh while she was trying to fuss at him about something. I think often about us growing up on Grace St. and how much fun we used to have. I am glad his suffering has ended even though it hurts to let him go. I send my love and prayers to all of you. ~C.C.

“ I feel blessed to have had you and your family welcome me into your lives with open arms. My feeling of loss for you is preceeded by the overwhelming joy I also feel knowing that you are now in heavean and know no pain. I will always remember your sence of style your sence of humor and that bright smile. The one thing that i will remember most about you is that fact that you could not drive. The fence at 602 W. Eldridge is my witness. Most of all I just want you to know that I love you, And will see you again. Please save me a space.

“ I didn't know Randy very well. I mostly knew him through his sister, Syble. Occasionally, I would see him walking. Once, I saw him at work. Lastly, I visited him in the hospital. I could see that Randy's Huntington's was a challenge for him, but he refused to let it keep him down. In all of this, he made a good impression upon me. Randy was polite and always respectful. I hope that God will always remember him for good. Job chapter 14, verse 13.

“ Syble,
Continue to "trust in the Lord and lean not unto your own understanding." Randy is in a better place. . . free from pain and the cares of this world. I know your heart is broken, however, I hope the knowledge that you are in the thoughts and prayers of so many who love you, will be a consolation.
