“ To the family we offer our deepest sympathy.. As you know we were like family growing up as next door neighbors..Rawlan was like my second dad. As I began my career as a Social worker he immersed me in the Community Education model, Gundry cradle program. He was also my husbands principal at Emerson a wonderful role model. Very innovative and no nonsense. He will be missed but his legacy will forever live on in Flint.

“ *To Myra, Steven, Rev. Rawlan Jr., Derrick , Jeffrey and Family;
Memories last forever and I will have them and love for the family. Over forty years ago I had the honor of meeting the Lillard Family, as Myra and I worked together at the State Office Building: I was honored when they added my youngest child to the long list of God Children they already had. They watch my children grow up and I watched theirs. I will always love them for they lead me to First Trinity and Christ, my life changed. Deacon Lillard was a godly man that had a way of speaking that you listen and he would then give you that smile of his that showed approval. I shall always have these memories of love in my heart and a prayer on my mind for the Family. The Lord knows and will be your comforter in the coming days. I LOVE YOU!*

“ So thankful for Mr. Lillard. He was the first Black male teacher I had who wore a crisp white shirt, black dress pants, and polished black shoes everyday to work at Parkland Elementary School teaching art back in the 60s. Such a man of God. Thank you Mr. Lillard for being an impressive role model when I was a little girl in your class. I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? TYhe bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.
