Mr. Reanell B. Johnson was born September 10, 1964 in Flint, Michigan, the son of Bernal Johnson and Mildrew Marks (Mr. Delois) Wright. He was raised by his aunt, Hazel Marks. Reanell graduated from Flint Southwestern High School, "Class of 1982." With that, his tryst with educational excellence began in 1995 at Mott Adult High School where he received a certificate in Marketing. Reanell accomplished that goal in December of 2002 by receiving an Associate Degree in General Studies. In addition to this he was awarded an Associate Degree in Arts in May of 2003. His love for learning remained with him until his sudden death. More importantly, it was his love for family and friends, that kept him involved with family. Jeremy provided Reanell with the greatest gift of love, three grandchildren, Shau Tiara Watson “Little Mama”, Janya Williams and Jeremy Jr. He also impacted positively the life of his god-daughter, Reanella Watkins, who is named after him and her two sons, Alphonso and Kaleb Dent who affectionately called him “Granddad”. Reanell had several other god-children also.
