“ I still miss you Geenie. Our mothers, Sarah King-Barnes and Gertrude Elbert-Rosborough, were friends since they attended Emerson Jr. High in the late 1930s, and our families have been close for as long as I can remember. You are, and will always be remembered. Thank you for some great memories and Thank you for being my friend.

“ To The Barnes and Swazer Family ,

Sorry to hear about the loss of Gina. She was like a big sister to me and my family. Mother Poole love her dearly and she love my Mother. I will always be grateful for the love she show to my mother. I will continue to keep your family in my prayers. Gina has fought the good fight, Gina has finished the race, Gina has kept the faith.

Keep you in our Prayers.. ToMard Poole & Poole Family

“ Praying for you K and family. Regina was a good person. She made the best peach cobbler this side of Mississippi. I am glad she is no longer suffering. Rest in Heaven GG. For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

“ My Dear Family I know our hearts are broken right now; But God has called Jeanie to rest. Only he knew the depth of her suffering. Let us continue to trust him for strength and guidance during this time. Only he can heal our brokenness and feel the void left in our hearts. Love to every one of you!

“ To the Barnes-Swazer Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious gift of life that leads to death.

However, have you asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
