“ To the entire Andrews and Chaney families, I want you to know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers. I met Renee and Mark when we were very young attending Harrow School in Beecher. We walked home from school together everyday until they moved to the city. We lost contact for a while but managed to find one another again in our 20s, then Mark left. I was quite saddened to learn of Renee's passing. May God be with you all and carry you through it.

“ My famiy and I met Renee when we moved across the street from her family on Baldwin. 20 years later we re-united when she became a very dear friend and supporter to my mother Consuella.

Renee's kindness was genuine! She had a "BIG" heart and truly cared about people. She will be sorely missed by everyone who knew her.

I pray that she has found peace and happiness at last. It is much deserved.
