“ We fondly remember the gentle, yet opioniated soul that Richard was.

A snazzy dresser, and a man with a very plesant attitude.

Ever dilligent and attentive in his duties as dance instructor, he gave us the example that dancing was a good form of socializing and keeping fit. Often saying, "Yup!! that dancing is GOOD for you! I don't even look my age, do I?"

Our prayers are for and with the ever graceful Ms. Bonnie, that Jehova continually encourage her. We all know the lifetime of personal sacrifice she undertook to maintain a spotless home and nurturing environment for Daddy John, Richard and the family.

To Beverly,Michelle, Tommy, and the family, be strengthened in Jesus our Savior, as you bond together through too soon another loss.

“ To the family of Richard Jackson:

You have my deepest sympathy in your loss...I missed seeing Richard at Town & Country lanes. He also tried to teach me how to ballroom...

I will miss hs smiling face.

“ To the family of Richard. I was saddened to learn about Richard's passing. It has been a while since I last saw him, but I remember he was always in a happy mood at bowling and dancing. Everybody knew Richard. I will pray for the family. God's blessings to you!

“ To Bonnie: I forgot to let you know that I was your nail tech when I was in Michigan. I am Eva's sister. We used to talk about Richard a lot when you came to get your nails done. Richard was loved by so many people. He was very popular. He had a way of putting a smile on your face and he was very encouraging at bowling. He would always cheer us on.
