“ It is with a heavy heart that I write this message. It has taken me days to think of something to write simply because I miss Lynn so much. From a little girl growing up and spending days at your home, to an adult I still called and check in. Thank you for being part of my village and raising me right. Love you

You will not be forgotten. Sascha

“ Will I miss your late night calls... yes (4, 5, 7 hours). Will I miss your laughter..yes. Will I miss your kindness and generosity...yes. Your cooking superb... your cakes and pies to live for... You are the epitome of what true friendship is about even though you are my cousin. You love people, and you gave, gave and gave yourself and anything you possessed to others. Lynn you were like Allie Mae Howard (grandmama) all the way. You learned all her lessons well (cooking, cleaning, etc). You held this Howard family down. The hole that's left can never be filled by any one person in this family such as you have done all of your life. We were the three musketeers (picture—Brenda, Michelle and Lynn). So I'll say that I am sooo glad you accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord & Savior. Because that means in whatever form we're in...we will see one another in heaven. GOD is not a man that HE should lie and that is HIS promise eternal life. I don't know if I can get through this Lynn, but for you I'm sure going to try. The love you gave me will forever be stamped on my heart!! With the ultimate in love and respect...please be our guardian ANGEL!!!
