“ I went to visit my Uncle with my brother in law Samuel Smith and my niece Elizabeth Finney. (Eliz took the pic) We had the best time laughing and talking. Uncle was so full of wisdom and guidance and stories and jokes about the old days. I'm going to miss him very much.

“Dad, I will forever & always miss you. I can hardly imagine never looking into your warm, tender brown eyes while seeing them look back at me with so much love and affection. I simply adore you, as do all of my siblings. Your gentle spirit & nature was profoundly magnetic. All of the children (grands and & great grands) gravitated your way.

I recall the many occasions you'd rescue me from Mom's weekly ritual of detangling my freshly shampooed hair. You'd whisk me away saying, "Come on Pokey let's go." Off we'd head to the lumberyard or hardware store, where my innocent young senses would be captivated by the scent of the freshly sawn, perfectly smooth planks of lumber or the vast assortment of nails, nuts, screws, bolts and widgets.

I so immensely enjoyed our numerous fishing excursions. Most vivid in my memory is the time you, my favorite cousin Janice, and myself were out in the middle of a lake fishing from your boat. Jan and I would periodically scoop water from the boat's floor concerned not one bit about the apparent leak for we were enjoying the adventure so much!

Dad, Forevermore I will treasure the wisdom, positivity, encouragement, direction, love and devotion you gifted me. You were "Simply the Best"

RIP, my precious earthly Father. May you be united with Mom and may the two of you eternally rejoice in the bosom of your Heavenly Father,

♥ Always, Paula, aka, Pokey
