“ I do not know this young man, but I live in the neighborhood, and watched him grow up over the past 15 years. It broke my heart to hear about this, and I was hoping it was not the same lil guy I used to see on Stockdale almost everyday going to the gas station, or just hanging out by his house. I never knew his name until now...Rest in Peace.

“ It broke my heart to see this!!! Just over a week ago, my sister and I were talking about Ridge and the special "little brother" relationship he had with our daughters while attending daycare. We wondered where he was and how he was doing. Ridge attended my home daycare "Happy Camper" when he was a small boy. At first he was shy but after a couple of day's, he and his buddy Carnel, were running and playing with the other children! I last saw Ridge years ago at the mall. He was standing on the wall and as I went to pass him our eyes met. There was a warmness in my heart and I turned around to ask him, "Are you Ridge Ross Williams?" He said yes and I gave him the biggest hug!! We talked for a bit and I went on my way. I've thought about Ridge, his mom and grandmother down through the years and hoped I'd run into him again, somewhere. I'm truly sad today and when I tell my daughter, niece and sister, I'm sure they will be too. I just hope he felt the love I had for him when he was a little boy and what a special "little guy" he was to me. Praying for you Angie and grandmother that God will hold you in the palm of his hand, give you peace and heal your heart's as you lay "our boy" to rest.
