“ Lindale you are at peace now. You are in a better place and that's with God. I am missing you every minute every second every hour and every day. you was a truly good friend and you always had god in your life. R.I.P

LINDALE. YOU ARE GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN. The last time I seen you, you told me that you will always love me and to always stay strong and keep my head up and keep god in my life and I am going to continue to do all of it.

To my family the Chatter's, knowing Lyndale was an adventure he kept me and my kids on our toes. We loved him more than life, he was always giving advice, keeping you laughing, when you needed him he was always there, you couldn't have a better cousin, friend and God uncle for the kids. Knowing you was and is a pleasure, all the thing we have been through together, I know you have lived a troubled life. God has you now and you can rest in peace. Keep God first and God will take care of you.

*Love,

We will miss you; but the plan is to see you in Heaven
