Beloved husband and father, Robert David Malone, passed away Monday, March 15, 2021, at his home in Mount Morris, Michigan, surrounded by his loving family. He was 82 years old.

Robert David "Dee-Dee" Malone was born April 28, 1938 in Crawford, Mississippi, the ninth child born to Aaron and Josie Malone.

During his childhood years, he received his elementary education at Pleasant Grove School. Once he reached his adolescent years, Dee-Dee had to quit school to help on the family farm. While being raised in a Christian home, he surrendered his life to Christ.

In 1957, Dee-Dee moved to Flint, Michigan, for a better life. He received an excellent opportunity to work for General Motors, retiring after 29 years in the Metal Fabrication Division. He was a faithful longtime member of the Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church. He was a dedicated member of the Total Praise and The Macedonia Mass Choir.

Dee-Dee was an avid sportsman. He was very active in several of the city leagues. Dee-Dee was the Commissioner of the softball league at Berston Field House. He coached men and women in baseball, softball, and basketball for many years, resulting in many championships. In 2009, Dee-Dee was awarded the Human Relations Commission People's People Award for his outstanding service to the City of Flint residents.

He was fun and loving to everyone he came in contact with, harassing them in his unique way, which quickly turned into laughter. Many will remember his signature expression when referring to the Bible, "it's in the Book unless you tore out the pages." Or his other all-time favorite sayings, "No Question!" Dee-Dee loved people, and people love him. He loved all his family; the young naturally gravitated to him, drawn in by his youthful spirit.

Robert and Helen Malone, his lovely caring wife of 36 years, have a blended family of ten of whom they truly love: Timithia (Michael) Johnson, Linette Malone, Martha Malone, Robert Malone, Beverly Ann (Dewayne) Bloodsaw, Cheryl (Maury) Wills, Nicole (Bryan) Allen, Shawn Malone, Cheryl Ross and Cedric Malone; sixteen grandchildren, Victoria Malone, Robert Malone, Jennifer Johnson, Dallas Malone, Dashawn Malone, Onasis Malone Pyles, Diamond Malone, Jaquan Malone, Mahogany Malone, Quinshawn Malone, Bryan Allen Jr., Brooklynn Allen, and Braylen Allen, Atearanie Starks, Elias Bloodsaw and Katrina Ross; eleven great-grandchildren, Zora, Dallas Jr., Makhi, Kashmir, Amyia, Jaiden, Zoya, Treyshawn, Zade and Jaquan; five sisters, Sophie Mae Allen, Jossie Redmond, both of Crawford, MS., Lillie Segar, Fannie Dell (Roy) Brooks and Priscella Greene, all of Kankakee, IL; two brothers, Johnny (Stella) Malone of Crawford, MS and Aaron (Vernal) Malone of Flint, MI. Dee-Dee has a multitude of special nieces and nephews from all over who loved and cherished his charming and exceptional personality.

Robert was preceded in death, by his parents Aaron and Josie Malone; siblings, Rosie Sykes, John L. Malone, Vernon Malone, John D. "Chunk" Malone, Appling Malone, Joe Ree Malone, Arthur James Malone; and grandson, Anthony Johnson.

Your kindness and the comfort it brings to us means a lot, in fact more than this simple "Thanks" can ever hope to show! Thank You So Much!

"Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Psalms 30:5
