“ So hard to say good bye my dear dear friend, I'm going to miss so much :( . The last 9+ years have been a roll roaster ride, with some things that I only tried because of you. When I was diagnosed with my MS, you there for me, and even when I was having bad day. We leaned on each other to get through what whatever the other was going through. I take comfort in knowing that you are at rest and at peace.
