“ This is a very sad day for our family. Ron you have been such a devoted friend to us that the news of this has left us in disbelief. There are so many wonderful things we can say about you that this comment box could never hold. You have touched the lives of many and the memories you have left us will fill our hearts for eternity. Our thoughts are with the Marks family and may God bring peace to your minds as he comforts your hearts. Ron on this beautiful day we will celebrate your life that God gave us the chance to be apart of. Open your wings and fly my friend!! Our family will miss you dearly and carry the memories you have left behind with us, all the days of our lives.

“ To the Wooley & Marks Family , we extends our deepest sympathy & condolences @ this most difficult time to each and everyone of you. We mourn your loss and hurt with you. Ronald was such a mannerable & respectful young man and was always willing to lend a hand whether helping you bring in your groceries , yard work or give you that beautiful smile and always made sure to give you a hug! We miss you already Ronald and you will always be in our heart! This neighborhood couldn't have asked for a better neighbor than you Ronald! R.I.P.
