Moe was a big brother and friend, Quick with a hug, smile and good word. Always. From Oak school when our families crossed to the end, he was always a giant in my eyes. My condolences to Cynthia, Babs, Spud, Tweedy, Stephanie, Joel and Jacob, his many nephews and nieces and family who cherished him. A light has gone out with the loss of our brother. Rest in power Moe.

“ I watched you from afar while wanting to be like you. You stood so tall in everything you did, most would have been upset sharing your starting position with someone. But just the thought of Spud showing me any of the tricks he had learned from you and tweety made me happy. You were always kind and supportive with us. God truly has another angle with you going home to glory, Cynthia I'm praying for peace to you and the Moore family 🙏🙏🙏
